From holes by Louis Sachar
page 4

Here's a good rule to remember about rattlesnakes and scorpions: If you don't bother them, they won't bother you.

Usually.

Being bitten by a scorpion or even a rattlesnake is not the worst thing that can happen to you. You won't die.

Usually.

[...]

But you don't want to be bitten by a yellow-spotted lizard. That's the worst thing that can happen to you. You will die a slow and painful death.

Always.

AUFGABE 1

single words

Louis Sachar uses single words to emphasize (betonen) facts.

Read the sentences from the book "holes" on the INFO board on the left. Make at least 5 sentences like the example. Write about yourself, your school, your family and friends. You can use always, often, sometimes or never.

e.g. Here's a good rule to remember about OL.

If you work hard, you will get good marks.

Usually.

If you don't work, you will get bad marks.

Always.

AUFGABE 2

Louis Sachar uses many words to make one very long adjective to describe people.

Look at the example from the book "holes" on the INFO board on the left. Make at least three adjectives like that to describe people you know.

e.g.

My always-knows-it-all-annoying-silly-big-mouthed-brother.

My rich-never-around-never-calling-sailing-around-the-world-uncle.
